

Life in the Cycle of Poverty:
Learning Objectives

1. Knowledge
  - to recognize and understand the nuances of the culture of Poverty And impacts on family dynamics.
  - to consider their own perceptions of poverty and biases in service delivery with clients living in poverty and examine Fairness/Equity issues regarding Poverty.
2. Skill Learning
  - to understand and demonstrate the importance of considering alternative language and behavioral approaches in Child Welfare Services delivery.
  - to identify their personal experiences and biases and how it impacts their perception of families that they are working with and their delivery and provision of services.
3. Value Learning
  - provide data related to poverty to better understand its dynamics. Examine issues of fairness /equity of those caught in the Cycle of Poverty and will share and exchange ideas and concepts to address the challenges/barriers to escaping the Cycle of Poverty in services delivery of Child Welfare Services.